

LABOR'S INNING AT CONFERENCE

Series of Addresses by Able Leaders.

PRESENT THEIR SIDE AT THIRD DAY'S SESSION.

John W. Hayes, Secretary of the Knights of Labor; Henry White of the United Garment Workers; M. M. Garland of the Iron and Steel Workers, and Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor were speakers.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—[Special].—The theorists, agriculturists, free traders and protectionists having had their say at the trust conference, labor took an inning at the third day's session, and presented its side of the case in a series of addresses by the ablest leaders of its forces.

John W. Hayes, secretary of the Knights of Labor; Henry White of the SAMUEL GOMPERS, President of the American Federation of Labor, was speaker.

Mr. Seymour said: "The trusts or combinations which should be destroyed and which can be destroyed are those which exist by reason of the protective tariff, and those which, either in their organization or in their methods since organization have adopted criminal practices, and are therefore amenable to the criminal laws. In the one case there is need of the repeal of unwise and unjust legislation. In the other there is need of the enforcement of penalties which run against individuals hiding behind trust organizations as well as they do against individuals who stand upon their own responsibility."

"Trusts need not be more objectionable than corporations or sole ownership. They are subject alike with them to the laws. If they violate the laws their officers may be punished. If they secure advantages under unjust laws purchased in their interest, or if they escape the penalties of wise laws enacted to prevent and punish crime, it is certain that representatives of the people in office have betrayed their trust, and would have done it as quickly if the bribe-giver had represented individuals or had represented himself alone."

"The evil to be intelligently complained of and redressed, therefore, is more the weakness and dishonesty and heedlessness of many of the people and their agents than it is the rapacity of the trusts. There is not an unlawful combination in America today that does not owe its existence to some unfaithful representative of the people. There is not one that cannot be destroyed in short order by an honest enforcement of the laws. Those trusts or combinations against which the laws do not run are no more to be decimated than any other manifestation of business enterprise."

Gov. Hazen S. Pingree of Michigan, Senator Albert Beveridge of Indiana, who has just returned from the Philippines; Samuel Gompers, the labor leader, and Gov. Stanley of Kansas were among the new arrivals at the conference today who listened to the debate and addresses. William Jennings Bryan is on his way to the city. Nearly a hundred additional delegates arrived and registered today, including distinguished authorities on economical, commercial and professional questions.

Gov. Hazen S. Pingree of Michigan spoke on "The Effect of Trusts Upon Our National Life and Citizenship." He claimed the trusts will convert the country into a nation of slaves. "Commercial feudalism is the logical outcome of the trust. The trust manager is the feudal baron. The degrading process of the trust means much to the future of a republic founded upon democratic principles. A democratic republic cannot survive the disappearance of a democratic population."

Benjamin R. Tucker of New York had for his subject "The Attitude of Anarchism Toward Industrial Combinations." He said in part: "Free access to the world of matter, abolishing land monopoly; free access to the world of mind, abolishing idea monopoly; free access to an untaxed and unprivileged market, abolishing tariff monopoly and money monopoly; secure these and all the rest shall be added unto you. For liberty is the remedy of every social evil, and to anarchy must the world look at least for any enduring guaranty of social order."

Ex-Gov. Foster of Ohio said the trusts had come to stay, and advocated government license and inspection.

Prof. George Gunton of New York deprecated the attack on the combines, and compared the present agitation to the anti-machine riots.

Aaron Jones of South Bend, Ind., master of the National grange, took as his subject "Agriculture and Trusts." He spoke in part as follows: "It occurs to me that the first step to be taken in remedial legislation is to pass a well-considered anti-trust law by congress defining the powers and limiting the privileges of these corporations, and supplement this law by enactments of the several state legislatures to apply to such phases of the matter as could not be reached by the United States law."

J. C. Hanley, representing the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union of America, said in part: "I am convinced that legislation cannot remedy this evil, except it strikes at the root of the evil, and that the government shall own and control all means of transportation and public utilities and operate them in the interests of the people—such as railroads, telegraph, telephone, lands and mines."

Samuel H. Greeley of Chicago said: "The public warehouse monopoly was born in a railroad office. Railroads are the mother of trusts, special rates of freight food that prolongs their existence. Without this food all others in the commercial world might as well notify the undertaker, and endeavor to save enough for a decent burial."

DEMOCRATS' PLANS OUTLINED BY JONES

DENOUNCES ALL THAT SAVORS OF REPUBLICANISM.

Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, in a London Interview, Says Bryan Will Head Their Ticket—Believes in Absolute Independence For Filipinos.

London, Sept. 15.—[Special].—Senator Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the national democratic committee, gave a formal statement officially outlining the plans of the democratic party and clearing away the disputed points of the next presidential campaign.

Senator Jones said: "Upon my return on October 7, I shall resume active participation in the national committee. Since abroad, I have been in constant communication with Governor Stone and statements of conflicts within the committee are absurd. The party will fight on a platform of anti-imperialism, free silver, anti-trust and reduction of tariffs. Other issues will be met as they arise. Personally I believe in giving the Filipinos absolute independence and in telling the world to keep their hands off in the Philippines. Bryan will surely be the democratic nominee."

HAS NO SIGNIFICANCE

Services of Denby and Worcester Needed More in Washington Than Manila.

Washington, Sept. 15.—[Special].—It is stated here that the recall of Denby and Worcester, the Philippine commissioners, has no particular significance. It does not mean any alteration in the Philippine policy.

The recall was made, it is said, because the commissioners have had full time and opportunity to canvass the situation and their labors here are more valuable than in Manila.

A "PUBLIC SCHOOL SERVICE"

Teachers and Scholars Invited to the Baptist Church.

All teachers and scholars of the public schools are cordially invited to attend a special "Public School Service" at the Baptist church, Sunday evening. From the weekly calendar we quote the following: "The past week has been marked by the opening of our public schools. The school is our chief foundation-stone of both church and state. It is therefore appropriate that the church should recognize the school. This is our purpose on Sunday evening. Special invitations have been sent to every teacher in the city and the pupils have been invited through the public press. All seats will be free after 7:30 o'clock. A solo will be sung by Prof. Gaskins. Sermon by Rev. Arthur G. Kempton on "Jesus, the model teacher." The service will, of course, be strictly non-sectarian."

Advices the Boers to Yield.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Temps advises the Transvaal that the only way of foiling the plans of her enemy is to disregard the form of Mr. Chamberlain's latest communication and to keep resolutely to its substance—namely, the very text of her own note of Aug. 19. The Transvaal is now called upon to grant what she offered a month ago. She need only to refer to that offer, to renew it, and accept the consequences. The Temps' article is believed to be inspired by the French foreign office.

SAY BOERS' REPLY IS UNFAVORABLE

LONDON TIMES PRINTS TRANVAAL DISPATCH.

Ready to Move on the Frontier as Soon as the Reply is Sent to London.—Fortifications at Johannesburg Main Tained For Attack on British Subjects.

London, Sept. 15.—[Special].—The Times in its second edition prints a Transvaal dispatch which forecasts the Boers' reply as unfavorable.

It says the Boers are ready to move on the frontiers as soon as the reply is sent to London.

Pretoria, Sept. 15.—The discussion of the first draft of the reply to the British note ended yesterday evening. President Kruger having left at 4 o'clock and not having returned.

It is understood that the government will draw up the reply in its final form today and immediately submit the same to the volksraad.

The reply will be in terms strongly influenced by the Orange Free State, and, among other features, the maintenance of the convention of 1884 will be strongly asserted.

The situation is not considered so favorable as it was yesterday.

London, Sept. 15.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily News says that a thousand men are engaged in strengthening the defenses of Pretoria. Trenches are being excavated and earthworks constructed.

THE REAL CRISIS IS TO COME

Great Britain Likely to Demand Reduction of Johannesburg Forts.

London, Sept. 15.—The keenest and best-informed observers assert that the real crisis in the Transvaal controversy will come when guarantees for permanent peace are discussed in the Cape Town conference. The natural inference is that the British representatives will demand the reduction of the defensive works at Johannesburg or at Pretoria, since these menace Englishmen only, and are not needed for external defense from any foreign quarter.

Reduction or abandonment of these fortifications will probably be proposed as a reasonable guarantee of peace, which will be satisfactory to the imperial government.

The Boers will not be likely to take the same view of the matter. They will consider it an unreasonable demand, remembering Jameson's raid, and the real crisis in the relations between the Transvaal and Great Britain will follow.

The safest judgment which can now be formed is that, barring accidents or any impetuous Boer rush upon Laing's Nek, a conference will be arranged, and that there will be no war until the end of October, if at all.

Everything indicates that the British government has determined to operate on a large scale if it is compelled to declare war, and that it will not take any chances.

The appointment of Sir George White is another indication that the government will be prepared for an emergency which may require a force of 40,000 men. The selection of the former commander-in-chief in India cannot be explained on any other ground, and he will be at the base of operations.

Certainly there are not British troops enough in south Africa at the present moment for operations on the large scale which the government has in mind if it is forced to settle the Transvaal question by war.

This is another cogent ground for the opinion that there will be no war until the end of October, accidents being excluded. President Kruger's prompt acceptance of the Chamberlain proposals, based on his own offers, will be followed by an earnest conciliatory effort to settle the questions at issue peaceably, but military preparations will not be relaxed, especially as there is likely to be a final crisis over the reduction of the Transvaal forts as a reasonable guarantee of permanent peace.

The ministers are evidently bent upon having a final settlement which will put an end to all vexatious controversies and promote the harmonious development of the resources of south Africa, and they will conduct the negotiations in a conciliatory spirit, but with a well-organized army in the background, equipped and ready for operations on a large scale.

GERMANS URGE BOERS TO YIELD.

Berlin Press Comments Favorably on Great Britain's Latest Note.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Great Britain's note to President Kruger is judged favorably by the entire press of Berlin. All the papers over which the government has any influence express the hope that the Transvaal government will yield and that the crisis will soon be past.

The National Zeitung says: "The British note is polite and conciliatory. The proposals of the cabinet are moderate. The Transvaal can afford to accept them."

Even Anglophobe and anti-Semitic journals like the Staatsbürger Zeitung admit that the note is tame, and not to be regarded as an ultimatum.

GETS DAMAGES FROM WISCONSIN CENTRAL

AN OSHKOSH JURY AWARDS BERTHA GUHL $2,500.

Suit Against Railway Company Was For $15,000—New Officers Appointed at State Prison—Boy Attempts to Pick Nitro-Glycerine Cap With a Needle—State News.

Oshkosh, Wis., Sept. 15.—The jury in the case of Bertha Guhl against the Wisconsin Central Railroad company returned a verdict yesterday afternoon of $2,500, after being out but a short time. The plaintiff brought suit to recover damages on account of injuries she sustained in March 1898, by being run into at a crossing in the town of Black Wolf by a passenger train. She was living near this crossing and was traveling northward along the highway one evening. While going toward the crossing she saw a freight train coming towards her from the north. Not expecting any passenger train from the south she continued to give her attention to the freight train. By reason of the unevenness of the ground and the existence of a certain fence and other objects the view of the freight train was shut off as she approached the crossing. She supposed that the train was coming towards her and continued to watch for it. She did not see it again until within a few feet of the crossing. In the meantime a passenger train was coming from the south, and as the plaintiff testified, gave no signal or warning of its approach. The plaintiff was struck while going over the crossing. The freight train had stopped at a sidetrack somewhat farther north to allow the passenger train to go by. She sustained severe injuries to her hip and back and her left arm was broken in two places. She asked for $15,000 damages.

Boy Maimed For Life.

Oconto, Wis., Sept. 15.—The 10-year-old son of John Karsted of Underhill, was seriously, if not fatally injured yesterday by the explosion of a nitro-glycerine cap, such as is used to fire dynamite. The lad's eye was attracted by the bright copper cap and he wished to decorate the end of a pencil. He first proposed to put it on the end of a stick and explode the contents, but on being told by his elder brother that such proceeding would be dangerous, he began picking at the gun cotton with a darning needle. The cap exploded and tore off two of his fingers on the left hand and maimed the right one so that the loss of its use is feared. The eye of one eye is also destroyed.

Refused Separate Trials.

LaCrosse, Wis., Sept. 15.—Judge Wyman yesterday refused to grant separate trials to the four men charged with the murder of William Kehr. Bail was asked for them and $6,000 mentioned by the judge, but Dist. Atty. Morris argued strongly for at least $20,000 for Miller, so the judge adjourned court until Monday without making a decision. The trial will take place in January.

New Officers at State Prison.

Waupun, Wis., Sept. 15.—E. H. Harvey, who for twenty six years has been connected with the Cook county bridge, well, has been appointed deputy warden of the state prison, succeeding Capt. C. H. Lindsey, who was appointed by ex-Warden Roberts, and who has been connected with the prison here in various capacities for seventeen years.

Mr. Harvey is a former Wisconsin man and his long experience in dealing with the criminal class makes him a good assistant to Warden McClaughey. The position of assistant deputy warden, recently created by the State Board of Control, is to be filled by A. C. Williams, who has been overseer of the knitting department.

The appointments were announced yesterday morning and created much interest here, especially the retirement of Capt. Lindsey.

The postoffice is in the Williams block in the rear of the defunct Dane County bank, and the money is kept in the bank vault, which the thieves did not touch.

Kenosha Girl Again Disappears.

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 15.—Rosie Weiss, the fourteen year old truant, has again disappeared from the city. She is infatuated with "Sam" Rosso, an Italian many years her senior, and has on several occasions gone off with him. The police, therefore, suspect that she is with her lover, especially as Rosso was seen in Kenosha last evening. The officers are anxious to place the girl in a reform school, but her mother refuses her consent to such a course.

Watertown Man Appointed.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 15.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Harvey, yesterday appointed C. F. Viebahn of Watertown to the state board of teachers' certificate examiners to succeed Prof. A. J. Hutton of the Whitewater State Normal school, who has resigned.

Prof. Viebahn is city superintendent of the Watertown schools, and is well known in educational circles. Prof. Hutton was appointed to the board in 1892, and has served continuously since, and asked to be relieved from the duties of the board, which are enormous at certain times of the year.

BURGLARS ENTER A CLINTON RESIDENCE

JAMES IRISH RELIEVED OF MONEY AND A WATCH.

Twenty-Five Dollars in Cash Secured—
Evidence That the Work Was Not Done by Professionals—Local Residents Suspected—Must Answer as to Their Whereabouts That Night.

Clinton, Sept. 15.—The residence of James Irish on North Main street was burglarized Tuesday night and $25 in cash and a silver watch were taken. The thieves first effected an entrance into the cellar, but being unable to get to the upper part of the house next entered by way of the kitchen. Finding the inside door bolted they then went to the parlor window at the front of the house and taking out a window screen, crawled under the sash. Mr. Irish was partly awakened in the night by a noise, but thinking it was some member of the family paid no attention to it. In the morning his clothes, which he had left by his bed were missing. Investigation resulted in finding his trousers outside the house. The pocketbook which had contained the twenty-five dollars in bills was gone. His coat and vest were discovered in another place, minus watch and chain. No clue to the robbery has as yet been obtained. Marshal Bogardus is confident that the job was not done by professionals and is furthermore quite satisfied in his own mind who the culprits are. He will keep a sharp watch on the suspected parties and it is quite possible that certain local persons will have to account for their whereabouts on that night. A. D. Parker of Shopiere, was in the city Wednesday. He was selling steam engines, and would like to furnish the village with one to do the pumping at the water works. Mrs. Edith Scott of Bradford, expects to soon become a resident of this place. She will have an auction on her farm early in October, and will then give possession to Gilbert Larson, who has rented the place. Mrs. Scott's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Scott, will also come here to live. Mrs. Nancy Jones and Mrs. James Selkirk came down from Janesville, Wednesday. George Rogers will begin teaching the school at Clinton Corners, next Monday. Miss Ives, Ames, will teach school in the Latta district. O. C. Wakefield arrived from Missoula, Montana, Tuesday, and will remain for a few days. His sister, Mrs. Dutton, is here from New England to attend the wedding. Hamlin Hatch of Grand Rapids, Mich., is here this week. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cuckow of South Main street, are guests this week, of Mr. and Mrs. Y. E. Wipegar. Dr. West goes around with "one shoe off and one shoe on." A horse stepped on his near foot. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Taylor announced that they would keep "open house" to their friends during state fair week. They have an exhibition of carriages, as usual, on the grounds. Mrs. E. P. Babcock whose death was mentioned this week was a member of the Woman's Relief Corps and also a member of the W. C. T. U. Both organizations attended the funeral services in a body. Mrs. Babcock was also a member of the House Forum Benefit order and was the second member of the local order that has been removed by death. Herman Berndt is pronounced out of danger by Dr. Montgomery and is slowly gaining. E. G. Eldridge was some better Wednesday, but is still confined to his bed. Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge had completed preparations and were to have started east, Sunday, when he was taken with a severe attack of bilious colic. W. C. Bradley is helping at the office during Mr. Eldridge's absence. William Schenke, a section man on the Northwestern road, had his foot badly crushed Monday, while at work. A Thanksgiving Festival will be given at the Baptist church next Sunday. Decorations of vegetables, fruits and flowers will be a feature of the occasion and exercises appropriate to the day will be given. The reports of the delegates from Brodhead will be listened to at the evening service. The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. W. P. Leek, Tuesday afternoon and a picnic supper was served. The "Star-Times" of Hudson, Wis., gives an account of a fine musical recital given by Mrs. Lizzie Schaub of that city, in which she was handsomely complimented as a pianist and music teacher. Mrs. Schaub is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Benson of this village. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanson mourn the loss of a child a few months old. The funeral occurred Saturday. Two car loads of lumber have arrived and have been unloaded for the new elevator. The work will be pushed to completion at once and the building will be ready for the fall grain business. L. J. Merrill now occupies the wagon shop vacated by O. P. Hinman. Dr. R. H. Thomas will return to Milwaukee next Monday to finish his course at the dental college. Mrs. Sadie Hamilton has been a sufferer with hay fever lately. Oakley Lowe, of Salt Lake, a former Clinton boy, is soon to be married. He is in the creamery business at present. Henry Rustad was in town for a short time last week. Miss Aggie Marsh has secured a position at the "Fair," Chicago. Mrs. Floyd Murdock was here one day recently. Mrs. Minnie Crane and family have arrived and will soon take up their residence in their new house on Milwaukee street. A. B. Wilcox and family visited at Davis, Ill., this week. Miss Grace Fredlund entertained a Miss Goodwin of Beloit, recently. Mrs. G. R. Bush and daughter of Freeport, called on friends here, lately. F. O. Bradley has been putting up an addition to his house, this week. Dr. Mary Montgomery was called to Emerald Grove, Tuesday, by the critical illness of Mrs. Chas. Spencer. Mrs. Kilday, a former resident of this village, died at her home in Beloit, last week, aged ninety years. The South Clinton Sunday school held a very pleasant picnic in Duxstad's woods, last Friday. Rev. W. P. Leek preached at Waukesha, last Sunday. Miss Ethel Kemmerer began teaching Monday in the Fish Corners district. Banker H. A. Moehlenpach and wife have been spending the week at Lake Geneva. Mr. Caswell and wife of Fort Atkinson, visited friends here last week. W. F. Christian took a trip to Evansville a few days ago. Owners of the vacant lot on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, are not aware that any house will be built, at present, on that property.

ADDS HIS EVIDENCE.

Story is the Same as From Other Sources.

Lots of Money Spent But No Returns Have Been Received.

The people in Janesville willingly add their evidence to that which has already been given in favor of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids, the best remedy that has ever been sold in this city for backache, kidney and urinary disorders, sleeplessness and nervousness. Our druggists report wonderful cures and state that Kid-ne-oids are daily increasing in the opinion of our people. Kid-ne-oids act directly upon the kidneys and nerves and restore them to their natural condition. Good kidneys make good blood, good blood makes strong nerves. Kid-ne-oids make good kidneys and strong nerves. Mr. C. B. Conrad, wholesale dealer in leaf tobacco, 80 South Main street, says: "For some time past, as a result of disordered kidneys and uric acid poisoning, I suffered from pain across the small of my back, rheumatism and spasm of nervousness. Morrow's Kid-ne-oids soon conquered the backache and rheumatism and quieted and strengthened my nerves. I will advise all who suffer from kidney complaint to use Kid-ne-oids." Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are not pills, but yellow tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box by all druggists and by The People's Drug Co. Mailed on receipt of price. Manufactured by John Morrow & Co., chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

Cloth Capes, Plush Capes.

We are not caught napping. All kinds of outer garments are higher, because cloths have advanced and the great demand for garments gives employment to all the garment-workers in the large manufacturing centers and the scarcity of skilled labor sends up wages, as the experts can command a marked increase over summer prices. We placed our orders in May and June. Capes of plush or cloth will be very good and we show all the new things.

GOLF CAPES—By far the most attractive styles here.

We make them to order also from beautiful Stamer Rugs. Like qualities in ready-made capes cost from $5 to $10 more than we get them up for.

GLORIOUS HAIR

Is a matter of choice. Any woman may have it if she takes the trouble.

HERE'S PROOF

Miss Carrie Sparr, 2780 Cherry Street Kansas City, Mo., writes: "Six weeks ago I began using the Seven Sutherland Sisters' Scalp Cleaner and Hair Grower. My hair was very thin, having fallen out from scarlet fever. Thick, glossy hair is now coming in, and I am positive the remedies have greatly helped me. I advise everyone to use them."

WOMAN'S SPHERE IN THE ORIENT

Eliza Archard Conner Finds Her Dusky Sisters Breaking Their Ancient Bonds.

The last place in which to look for progress on the question of feminine rights is in the orient, yet I found in the island of Ceylon a case of new woman that is in advance of anything we have in the same line in the western world.

In brief, Colombo, the capital and main seaport of Ceylon, has a woman for one of the medical inspectors of the port. Strange to say, too, this very innovation is the direct outcropping and result of the foggy old woman notions of the orient.

MISS SCHOKMANN.
[Medical inspector of the port of Colombo, Ceylon.]

One of these inconvenient ancient notions is that in no case must a woman see or come in contact with any man except those of her own family. The idea of a man doctor attending a woman in illness is as abhorrent to the oriental mind as pork to a Mohammedan. In consequence poor little brown and yellow women suffer untold agonies because there are no more than two or three educated native women physicians in any country in Asia.

For this reason missionaries are hurrying to their aid with all possible dispatch lady medical graduates from England and America. Such women doctors are called medical missionaries, and if ever the new woman had a sphere cut out and waiting for her it is in Asia.

Noninfected Asiatic ports maintain a strict quarantine against cities in which the bubonic plague is known to exist. This involves a medical inspection of passengers arriving on ships from infected ports. Colombo as a British city with a clean bill of health rigidly enforces quarantine regulations.

Many passengers from plague stricken ports are native women. Whether these be steerage or first cabin travelers, to have them inspected by a masculine doctor would subvert social institutions, destroy the foundations of religion and, worst of all, might start a revolution against the British government.

The assistant port surgeon who inspects and passes women travelers at Colombo is Miss Schokmann. Great Britain provides liberally for education in the oriental colonies. At Colombo there is a government medical school open to both sexes. Its system of instruction is thorough.

To become a medical man or woman full fledged the student must take a six years' course of study. A four years' course entitles the undergraduate to practice as a medical assistant. He may not put out a shingle on his own account, but he may associate himself with a regularly graduated physician and cure or kill all the patients he can get. There is also connected with the institution a course in pharmacy.

It is to the credit of the native Indian and Cingalese women that they are bursting the iron bonds of oriental tradition and are bravely beginning to qualify themselves for physicians, druggists or nurses. Girls of half native and half European blood take advantage of opportunities for enlightenment oftener than the downtrodden native women.

A broad division of the inhabitants of Ceylon puts them into three classes as to race—whites, burghers and natives. The burghers are the mixed blood descendants of the Dutch, who held the island till they were made to give it up to the British in 1796. The burghers naturally constitute a solid and intelligent portion of the people of this fearfully mixed up island. Burgher girls are foremost among those who go in for industrial and professional training, and they are eminently successful in what they undertake. Their ancestral Dutch common sense and steadiness are notable.

Of burgher blood is Miss Schokmann, assistant medical inspector at Colombo. Her sturdy Dutch father, himself a medical man, is proud of his girl, and he has reason to be. It is her duty to board all ships from plague infected ports and examine the women passengers, white, black, yellow and brown, and, if the investigation is satisfactory, give them a permit to go ashore. Until she does this no women can leave the ship. She reports daily to her superior officer, the surgeon of the port.

When a ship from an infected city arrives in the harbor, Miss Schokmann springs into a rowboat and is propelled swiftly alongside by the oarsmen specially provided for her and other inspectors. The boatmen are neatly uniformed, and the little woman doctor is rowed out in state.

There is no babyish pretense of timidity as she springs from the bobbing boat and up the steps on board the ship. Long practice, natural courage and active muscles enable her to skip up a steamer's side like a man of the sea.

I had the pleasure of spending some hours with this thoroughly interesting young daughter of the orient. I could not help noting the respect and esteem in which she is held in Colombo. Hats come off and pleasant greetings are heard wherever she appears.

"If you can square Miss Schokmann, you'll be all right," said a high official to whom I made grumble over the difficulties thrown in the way of passengers going ashore from our steamer at Colombo. In British slang to "square" a person means the same as the American slang to "make yourself solid with."

In her dusky hair and brunette skin the young lady shows traces of her oriental mother race. But she has the brisk, businesslike movement, the self contained, self dependent, yet thoroughly modest and ladylike manner of the best type of western woman in professional or industrial life.

And the faster her type increases in the eastern hemisphere the better it will be for this great, sad, dark orient. A true civilization depends more on the strength, intelligence and nobility of women than on anything else.

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

NOTES OF WOMAN'S WORK.

Some Activities of the Members of the Unquiet Sex.

A young woman in Buffalo has made a striking success as a drill mistress.

She is Mrs. H. W. Palmer, and she has organized and drilled a number of young women in military tactics. The company is connected with a fraternal insurance order and appears at entertainments in various cities where there are branches of the order. Mrs. Palmer and her uniformed corps are greatly in demand, for most of the privates are as pretty as their captain.

Miss Claire Helena Ferguson is known as "the girl sheriff of Utah." She recently prevented the escape of "Handsome Gray," a notorious criminal.

Mrs. Artie Goodwin Cullop, leader of the society set at Vincennes, Ind., who has been appointed honorary commissioner from Indiana to the Paris exposition, is peculiarly fitted to the requirements of the position. Mrs. Cullop was the unanimous choice of the federal bench of the state and was endorsed by many men of national prominence.

During the past year Mrs. C. A. White of Chicago has demonstrated the fact that it is not only feasible but an exceedingly profitable occupation for women to import blooded canines. She is the only woman in the world who has made the experiment, her specialty being Japanese pugs, which are the fashionable fad of the hour.

The queen of Roumania has presented to the ancient church of Cartea d'Argesch, said to be the oldest in the kingdom, a beautiful manuscript copy of the evangelism used in the eastern church, written and illuminated by herself on 30 sheets of parchment.

Three Chicago women are building a house. It isn't any shammy, summer cottage, either, but a brick house with stone foundation. The women—Mrs. Franz Liebegut and her two daughters, Marie, 18, and "Gustie," 16—are doing every bit of the work, from digging and cementing the cellar to making mortar and laying the bricks of the walls. It is such a departure from the way that Chicago women usually win notoriety that the whole northwest part of the city is talking about the house that women are building.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1508—Philip of Austria, father of Charles V, died.

1613—Sir Thomas Overbury died in the Tower of London, which led to terrible revelations.

1615—Lady Arabella Stuart died in the Tower, where she had been imprisoned six years because of the foolish jealousy of her cousin, James I.

1776—New York city captured by the British. At the beginning of the war the British held the harbor, and in August, 1775, the forts at the lower end of the city were evacuated. The disastrous battle of Long Island lost the city to the patriots.

1780—James Fehimore Cooper, born at Burlington, N. Y., died 1851.

1791—John Witherspoon, eminent Presbyterian preacher and scholar and "signer" for New Jersey, died near Princeton, N. J.; born in Scotland 1722.

1802—Surrender of Harper's Ferry and death of the commander, Colonel Dixon H. Miles, the most important surrender of the war.

1802—Arrival of the steamer Bohemia at New York from Hamburg, reporting 11 deaths by cholera, at sea.

TOO BUSY TO ENLIST

Wisconsin men do not have to go into the army in order to get a living these days. Only ninety-eight men have enlisted under the last call from Wisconsin, but nineteen other states and territories have furnished a smaller number—Nevada, for instance, only furnishing two men. Following is the record by states and territories:

Alabama.....	190	New Hampshire.....	71
Arkansas.....	122	New Jersey.....	342

In discussing the fact that Wisconsin did not send as many men to the front as some other states, Captain Penrose, the Wisconsin recruiting officer said:

"It is a fact that Wisconsin is behind many of her sister states in the number of men furnished for the Philippine war, but this is accounted for in a way which in no wise reflects upon the state. The fact is, there is too much of a demand for labor to give the army much of a chance. I have been all over the state, but have yet to find a man who has been forced to enter the service because he was unable to find work. Either they have expected to better their conditions by settling in the Philippines, or they have enlisted because the life itself is attractive to them. There are more positions open in every city of the state than there are men to fill them, and labor is at a premium."

The anti-trust conference is now in full blast—and the trusts are still doing business at the old stand—but good will come from the conference, surely. The problem of coping with the trusts is a complicated one, and it will not be solved without much study and discussion.

The Milwaukee Journal, independent, discusses Gov. Scofield's speech at the state fair in a column editorial, characterizing it as "statesmanlike" and declaring that it "will attract attention all over the country. President McKinley himself will ponder over it."

Sir Francis Lipton proposes to do his share, in welcoming Admiral Dewey, and 3,000 electric lights will gleam aboard his yacht, the Erin, when the Olympia enters New York harbor.

France is defiant, and says the world can "go to." This arrangement is in every way satisfactory, for the less the world has to do with the French government the better it will like it.

A man named Howe was chosen as chairman of the anti-trust conference. This action is appropriate, "How?" is the great question.

Zola seems to have adopted General Grant's famous saying—"I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer."

Flint glass bottles may go up, but their contents will, it is believed, continue to go down.

GAVE AN EXHIBITION RUN

Firemen Turn Out For the Veterans—Grass Fire.

The fire department gave an exhibition run at a few minutes before 2 o'clock this afternoon for the benefit of the visiting members of the Third regiment who were stationed on Main street, near the Lewis Knitting Company's factory. An alarm was turned in from box No. 36, located at the corner of Main and Sharon streets and the department made the run to the spot in good time, greatly to the admiration of the soldiers.

The firemen had no more than returned from the exhibition, when a still alarm was sent into the east side house from the street railway power plant at Spring Brook. The patrol responded and found a grass fire in progress near the power house, which was soon extinguished.

OYSTER SUPPER FOR THE BOYS IN BLUE

ENDING OF FIRST DAYS' SESSION OF REUNION.

An Agreeable Surprise on the Third Wisconsin Veteran Infantry Association Last Night—Rev. Pence Invoked Divine Blessing—Address By Mayor—E. O. Kimberley, President.

The first day's session of the annual reunion of the Third Regiment ended last evening with a most agreeable surprise on the "boys," which was arranged by the committee in charge, consisting of Col. E. O. Kimberley, B. M. Bucklin and F. J. Dunn. These gentlemen got their heads together and arranged an oyster supper at the Park Hotel, and every detail of the affair was perfect. It was attended by thirty-two of the veterans and was enjoyed immensely by all present.

The members of the association met at Post hall and after spending the fore part of the evening in visiting, they formed in line and marched to the hotel at 9 o'clock, and took their places at the specially arranged dining tables, which were appropriately adorned for the occasion. The dining room was decorated with the national colors, which made a suitable setting for the event. When all were at their places, Rev. E. H. Pence invoked the divine blessing. After the supper was over, the speech-making commenced. Captain T. C. Slagg, president of the association, introduced Mayor Richardson, who addressed the veterans in his usual pleasing manner. He welcomed them to the city, and said that under the circumstances he would rather listen to what the soldiers had to say than to speak himself. He was very young at the time of the war and could not state his experience at the time. He concluded by relating several incidents of the late war, which tended to show the pluck and indomitable will of the young generation.

General E. E. Bryant of Madison was called upon as the poet of the regiment, to address the boys, and he proceeded to give a brief history of the Third. He began by saying that which pleased him most of anything was meeting his old comrades again and he hoped to attend the gatherings for many years to come. He described in a modest way the valuable services the regiment had given the government during the war, from the time Sumpter was fired upon until the close of the conflict.

Col. E. O. Kimberley then sang in a very feeling manner, the song of the regiment, "Hamilton's Badger Boys," the author of which is General Bryant. He sang the inspiring song in a way which brought great applause from his comrades. Mrs. E. H. Pence played his accompaniment in a perfect manner.

W. F. Goodhue of Milwaukee, the secretary, followed with a few brief remarks and gave some interesting comparisons between the war in which the regiment had fought so nobly and the late war with Spain.

Col. G. W. Stevenson of Darlington, made a suitable little speech, and then Color-Bearer W. C. Wefert of Arena, Wis., related some amusing incidents of the war. Captain C. L. Dering of Portage, was next called upon and admitted that he was no speech maker and wouldn't deliver one if he could. He proceeded to give a couple of his experiences that were most prominent in his mind, and they proved most interesting.

Col. Kimberley was again called upon and sang "The Boys of '61," with a spirit which awoke the echoes. The veterans then adjourned to the office, where cigars were passed around, and the time until midnight was spent in discussing the events of the very enjoyable evening.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President—E. O. Kimberley, Janesville. Vice-President—C. W. Page, Waupun, Wis. Secretary—W. F. Goodhue, Milwaukee, Wis. Treasurer—W. C. Meffert, Arena, Wis. The next meeting place of the regiment will be at Waupun, on "Antietam Day," September 17, 1900.

The members of the association had their pictures taken, in the rear of the court house, this afternoon. The members who responded to roll call today were: Captain T. C. Slagg, Cambridge, Wis. Captain J. W. Hinkley, Green Bay, Wis. Captain C. L. Dering, Portage, Wis. Color Bearer W. C. Meffert, Arena, Wis. Colonel George W. Stevenson, Wiaota, Wis. Quartermaster Sergeant B. M. Bucklin, Janesville. Band Master E. O. Kimberley, Janesville. C. H. King, Painesville, Ohio. George T. Spaulding, Brodhead, Wis. Sergt. Frank Loveland, Monticello, Wis. W. F. Goodhue, Milwaukee, Wis. Ole O. Myre, Neenah, Wis. Alexander Beset, Neenah, Wis.

BURGLARS RAID AN EDGERTON SALOON

VISIT JANESVILLE WHILE FLEEING FROM JUSTICE.

Burglars visited Janesville this morning. The timed ones need not be alarmed, however, as they did not come on an expedition against the strong boxes of the Bower City residents, but were fleeing from Edgerton where they operated last night and early this morning. Nobody saw them, but they left the rig in which they came from the tobacco town, near the Hanson factory.

Edgerton has experienced many burglaries of late, but none have been as daring as the last one. Between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning thieves broke into a blacksmith shop, stole a number of tools and then entered the saloon of Frank Hartzlein. They drilled holes in the safe door, and opening it took $58 in money, and a number of valuable papers it contained. They then went to the home of Will Pomeroy, near by, and going to the barn hitched up his horse and made their escape from town. They took the road to this city and must have reached here early this morning.

The horse and buggy was discovered between 8 and 9 o'clock today by an employee of the New Gas Light Company. It was hitched up on Hickory street near the Hanson factory, and strange to say, Harrison Smith, a brother-in-law of Mr. Pomeroy, happened along soon after its discovery, and identified it as the property of the Edgerton man. The rig was taken to Nelson's livery stable and Chief Hogan was notified. Two men soon came down from the tobacco town on the lookout for the horse, and returned with it just before noon.

The robbers must have been of the Jesse James type, for they are said to have made considerable noise while doing their work. That they were experts is proven by the way the safe was opened. They did a great night's work, as several houses were robbed before the saloon job was tackled. The men must have boarded an outgoing train soon after they reached this city, as the police have failed to find any suspicious characters, although they have been on the lookout all day.

Edgerton has received more than its share of burglaries of late, and they have become so numerous that a Chicago detective has been employed to apprehend the perpetrators of them, but his work must be a life course as the one of last night was successfully done while he was dreaming of a way to stop them.

OOM PAUL'S
GOOD FRAU

Although a Multimillionaire's
Wife, She Cooks and Washes and Darns—Knows
More About Knitting
Than Politics.

BY MARY E. LEONARD.

The wife of "Oom Paul" Kruger is a plain, motherly looking old woman, who is as vigorous at 65 as most women are at 40. As wife of the president of the Transvaal republic she lives as simply as any burgher's wife in the country. Although her husband is said to have a fortune of from $25,000,000 to $35,000,000, she lives as economically as she would if they had not a penny in the bank.

What would we think of the wife of an American multimillionaire who did her own housework, cooked her own meals, made her own dresses and darned her husband's socks? Yet Mrs. Kruger does all these things. She has none of the airs of the fine lady. The wives of many a $1,500 a year clerk in Pretoria dress better than does the wife of the Boer president.

She is not parsimonious or miserly, however. She has a good, kind face. She has been a good wife and a good mother for half a century, and she knows not how to be anything different. In short, she is a typical good Dutch frau.

For many years the Krugers lived in a modest little cottage on one of Pretoria's back streets. The walls were generally covered with morning glory vines, and there was a big tree in the front yard. Under this tree Mrs. Kruger used to sit with her knitting, while her lord and master sat near smoking.

A few years ago Kruger had built a new house on Church street opposite the Dutch Reformed church, where he sometimes preaches. The new house is far from being a mansion. In fact, it is much less pretentious than the homes of many of the well to do burghers. It is such a house as an American millionaire might build for his coachman or head gardener.

An iron railing, with stone pillars, is in front of the house, which is protected from the sun by a veranda. Between the railings and the veranda, right and left of the entrance, crouch two stone lions, the gift of the late Mr. B. J. E. Rant.

The president's house is simply furnished, for he does not care for pomp. Much furniture he does not need since his favorite spot is the "stoep." Here he may be found early in the day till 8 o'clock and again from half past 5 till sunset.

The visitor would probably find Mrs. Kruger sitting there with her knitting. If she was not in sight, where do you suppose she would be? At a meeting of the Browning club, at a foreign missionary meeting? Not at all. She would be in the kitchen preparing the "kaffe klatch" or baking "der broede" or scrubbing the floors.

It is said that the Krugers' household expenses are more than met by the $2,000 allowed the president as "coffee money." The $35,000 salary is added to his ever increasing bank account.

Where all the Kruger fortune will go goodness knows! There are some American Krugers and residents of Chicago and relatives of the Boer president who expect to get some of it.

A correspondent who recently interviewed Mr. Kruger writes: "As he closed our interview Mr. Kruger went across the hall into a low ceilinged, whitewashed room and leaned for a moment over a placid faced, motherly little woman who was seated on a rocking chair, darning stockings. This was Mrs. Kruger, who, though one never hears of her, interested me mightily, because she seemed so utterly oblivious to the turmoils that are besetting her husband's nation."

Mrs. Kruger is a second wife. She was a Miss Du Plessis, a name of prominence in South Africa. Kruger's first wife was an aunt of Miss Du Plessis and bore him one son, who died. Sixteen children were the fruit of this second marriage, and of those seven are living. The girls are comfortably married to burghers in and about Pretoria, and the boys take an active interest in the army.

The Bull and the Red Wagon.

A writer in Forest and Stream tells how two friends of his set out to find a certain trout stream in a wild region twenty miles from San Francisco: Riddle had imported from Boston a light express, with the gear painted a bright red. A part of the route led them across a pasture for wild cattle, and their first intimation of mischief was the hearing down upon them of the whole herd, headed by a bull, pawing the ground and bellowing. "Ward," said Riddle, "that fellow means mischief. We must run for it." The men whipped up the horse and tried to escape, but it was useless; down came the drove. The bull charged the wagon, capsized it, and threw the men and their belonging to the ground. Then, for protection, they crawled under the vehicle, and the bull battered away at the wheels. It happened that Riddle's gun had landed within reach. He crawled from under the wagon, slipped in two cartridges, and the bull, at his next charge, was amazed at receiving a couple of charges of shot in the face. The drove stampeded at the report, and the bull followed, shaking his head, evidently in great surprise at the tendency of red wagons to go off in that disagreeable manner. The two fishermen returned to town, one with his arm in a sling, and the other very much battered about the face. The wagon was immediately painted a sober green.

Mon. Get Shorter on Mountains.

A singular result of the recent experiments of Prof. Angelo Mosso on the physiological effects of high altitudes is that a mountain ascent may produce such a flattening of the lumbar curve that a man may be an inch and a half shorter on the summit of Monte Rosa than when he is in the valley beneath. The height of Monte Rosa, the second loftiest peak of the Alps, is 15,215 feet. The cause of the shortening is partly the exertion of climbing. The human stature always diminishes slightly during the day.

Magazine Blown to Pieces.

Lima, Ohio, Sept. 15.—A nitro-glycerine magazine of the Hercules Torpedo company, three miles southwest of this city, blew up this morning. One man was found some distance away in the woods unconscious. It is thought several men were killed, and the ruins are still being searched for the remains. It is not known what caused the explosion. The shock was felt in this city.

President's Western Trip.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The president's trip to Chicago in October will be supplemented by a short tour through some of the principal cities of Illinois and may extend west as far as St. Paul. This plan has not been elaborated, and the extent of the presidential vacation will depend on the press of official business at that time.

Good Enough to Take.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medicine for the cure of coughs, colds, la grippe, croup and whooping cough it is unequalled by any other. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by People's Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Method in Her Loneliness.

"Why is it," they asked, "that you let your husband have his own way in everything?" "Because," she replied, "I like to have someone to blame when things go wrong."—Tit-Bits.

Does Coffee Agree With You?

It nourishes and feeds the system. The child can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c and 25c."

Capture a Rebel Ship.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The following dispatch has been received at the navy department from Rear Admiral Watson:

"M. J., Sept. 14.—Secretary of Navy, Washington: Davidson, commanding Paragua, reports sharp engagement at Balemao. Vessel struck many times by rifle shots; no casualties. Paragua silenced insurgents' fire in twenty minutes; range from 400 to 900 yards. Occasion, capture of Filipino schooner, which Davidson destroyed."

Balemao is in province of Masbate, south of Luzon and north of Visayas.

Sentence Soldiers to Death.

Manila, Sept. 11, via Hongkong, Sept. 15.—The local papers assert that Corporal Damhoffer and Private Corrine of company B, Sixteenth infantry, have been sentenced to death by court-martial, and that Private McBeunett has been condemned to twenty years' imprisonment for attacks on native women in Manila a month ago. The papers assert also that Gen. Otis has recommended that President McKinley approve the sentences, and that he desires a public execution of the men sentenced to death, as a warning against a repetition of the crime.

Floods Cause Much Damage.

Mrs. Maggie Majors of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ross, her mother and Mrs. Larque were killed. Engineer Wright and Fireman Keller were seriously injured and their condition is precarious.

McKinley Will Not Interfere.

New York, Sept. 15.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that the president is receiving petitions asking him to request the French government to pardon Dreyfus. No such action will be taken, the administration holding that to do so would undoubtedly be offensive to France, which would say that the government had no right to interfere in a matter which relates to internal administration and which she alone must decide.

Declines Offer of Majority.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 15.—Col. Duboce of the California volunteer regiment has declined the position of major in the Forty-fourth volunteers at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. The condition of his health and his private interests, he says, prevent his acceptance of the honor.

Don't delay a minute. Cholera, infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Disease Proves Fatal to All.

Cape Town, Sept. 15.—In the Cape house of assembly the premier, the Hon. W. P. Schreiner, admitted that there had been forty-two deaths from the bubonic plague at Magude, near Lourenço Marques, Delagoa bay. He said that every person attacked had succumbed to the disease.

Unquestionably the best for the club, cafe or family board. "BLATZ" possesses an individual goodness that is appreciated by those who enjoy good living—not essentially epicures or connoisseurs. Shall we send you a case?

Filipino Congress Falls.

Manila, Sept. 15.—The latest reports received by Gen. Otis regarding the Filipino congress were to the effect that the body had been disrupted and that its members were scattered. Several members have apparently abandoned hope of the success of the insurrection, for Gen. Otis' informants state that they are remaining in Tarlac, the rebel capital, awaiting the expected capture of that town by the American forces.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was of any use until we got him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who saw him could tell that he had ever been afflicted with Scrofula. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health. Mrs. S. S. MARY, 500 Elm St., Macon, Ga.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific, reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.

Ideal Milk Stands All Tests

The point brought up at a "Council" meeting some little time since, regarding the inspection of city milk, would, if enforced, find Ideal Aseptic Jersey Milk ready for any test. It is cooled and bottled in the most approved manner, bottles are sealed and thoroughly rinsed and each bottle fitted with clean, new, wood pulp corks. It will keep well and is perfectly pure. When cream forms on milk and becomes stringy it is impure. Ideal Milk forms perfect cream.

THE MAN WITH THE WHITE HAT

MAY BE SEEN ONCE TOO OFTEN FOR HIS OWN GOOD IT IS NOT SO, HOWEVER, WITH THE Great Bargains In Fine Shoes

that we are now giving the people of Janesville and vicinity. The more often you see them, the greater good you receive. For to see them is to buy, and to buy is to get far better Shoes, in style and quality, for much less money than you ever did before.

The Only Reason We Can Sell So Cheap

is because we bought the entire stock of the largest Shoe store in Marinette, Wis., at a very low price.

The Only Reason We Do Sell So Cheap

is because we are obliged to. Long before we had the chance to buy this big stock we ordered heavy fall shipments, and they are all coming in on us now. We have not shelf room for them all, so give the people advantage of the big deal we made and let everyone do good to himself according to his purchase from this stock.

THE REASON WHY YOU SHOULD BUY AT ONCE is because when the Marinette stock is gone, this "Bargain Sale" is over. So hurry up and join the rush. REMEMBER, it costs you nothing to look, and but little more to buy.
